By journeying through Year 1-8 catholic education at St Teresa's School, our young people will be ready to...

- ...value, respect and understand their own wellbeing, skills and needs, and be willing to ask for help
Our Year 8 learners respect and understand wellbeing
- ...demonstrate their faith by actively sharing what we value, with our community
Our students put our values into action in our community
- ...demonstrate excellence by participating fully in their own learning, as resilient problem-solvers and critical, creative thinkers
Our Year 8 learners are 'agentic learners'
- ...willingly work with others - actively listening, collaborating and contributing to shared successes
Our learning pathways are strong

St Teresa's School Karori
a catholic school where each child is nurtured to grow as a happy, faith-filled learner who is inspired to achieve excellence
