After last year's successful charity show, 'Meander', Opium entertainment presents 'Meander On' a totally new spectacular as part of the 2019 NZ Fringe Festival. Combining storytelling, music and modern dance to take you on a legendary and original journey.

Conceived by Opium's director, Hannah Dellow, and her cast, the show features story-teller, and singer, Te Kahureremoa (Ladyfruit), performing original songs. Choreographed by dance graduates of Whitireia, and dancers from the Wellington arts community, this show is not to be missed.

Our story tracks the moon cycle, its transformative energies and the journey of eleven sisters, as they explore what it means to be unapologetically her.

Tickets for Meander On are sold at www.fringe.co.nz

We are very excited about 2019 Karori Classics, and will kick start the year with two concerts in March: the first on 1 March and the second on 22 March.

On 1 March 2019 Karori Classics will start the year with the return of two wonderful pianists, Beth Chen and Nicole Chao, also known as Duo Enharmonics. Watch this little video, and get a glimpse of why these two musicians inspire us so much with their special connection, love of music and fantastic piano playing!
