A Community Sports Bank has been set up in your community to allow everyone access to sports gear, and get more kids active. If you need or want sports gear (including new mouthguards), ask your school office staff or a teacher for a Community Sports Bank card. Take the card to your Sports Bank to get free gear.

If you've grown out of sports gear from last year, or don't use it anymore, drop it in, so it can be used again and someone else can enjoy playing because of it.

Your nearest sports bank is

St Ninians Uniting Church, 208 Karori Road, Karori. Open Tuesday 4pm -5.30pm

Gear can also be dropped off at Karori Community Centre, 7 Beauchamp St, Karori. Open Mon, Tue, Thu, Fri 9am – 2pm, Wed 9am – 6pm)

For more information check us out on facebook www.facebook.com/communitysportsbank/

Room in the car? Keep your neighbours and school friends in mind when you're registering for sports, and offer a ride to games and trainings. Tell your kids to tell their friends.

Katherine Mansfield House & Garden is running its school holiday creative writing workshop again on Monday 6 July. If there's a way to share this with whānau at your school (such as a newsletter) that would be wonderful.

The workshop is run by a qualified, registered teacher and has a cost of $20 which includes morning tea. All information here: <https://www.katherinemansfield.com/event/july-school-holiday-creative-writing-workshop>

The Friends of Karori Cemetery is offering a special tour of some aspects of Karori Cemetery for 5-12 year olds during the school holidays. The tour will include the statue of Mrs Chippy, the cat who accompanied the Shackleton expedition of 194-1917; the plot of Phyllis Symons for whom we toot in the Hataitai tunnel to ensure her ghost knows we care; a national memorial to those who died in the Tangiwai disaster on Christmas Eve 1953; William Ward who was gored by a bull at the railway station, and many other heritage features and stories which will appeal to youngsters.

The tours will be available on Wednesday 8 and 15 July, starting at 10.30am, and will take about 1.5 hours. Children must of course be accompanied by their carers, and the Friends will ensure there are at least two volunteers to assist with management and safety. The tour will be on walking tracks as well as sealed roadways, so appropriate footwear is essential.

Bookings for these tours are required - by email to friendskaroricemetery@gmail.com
