Kia ora Kaitiaki,

Thank you for joining us in our last working bee at Monaghan Reserve on 30th May.

Our next working bee is coming up on Sunday 13th June to Birdwood Reserve. The very successful working bee on this site on 16th May involving a large group of Rangers, Brownies and Guides (and their parents) resulted in the planting beds around the pohotukawa trees beautifully filled with plants.

The volunteers also weeded the surrounding parts which are now ready for planting.

This site has easy access and carparking.

We are aware of concerns about COVID-19 and so ask you to stay home and take rest if you're feeling unwell. We will also have sign-in sheets for contact tracing and health and safety requirements.
