After coaching a year 8 KNS basketball team last year through to finals, I'm looking to get back into coaching (individuals or teams of any age) basketball for anyone keen.

I am 19 years old and have after playing college basketball and having many coaches myself I am informed and super passionate about teaching basketball and mentoring younger people, if you don't have a basketball hoop I can arrange access to one. I can run all kinds of drills to gain confidence and accuracy, improve shooting and ball handling etc.

Let me know if this is something you want to organise for your sons or daughters heading to high school soon, as I can also teach them how the game changes in the transition from intermediate levels. Feel free to contact me for more information.
